

Future Tense - worksheet

Practice time Now is your chance to use this grammar and make it your own.

Tell your own story.

Use the simple future tense to talk about what will you do tomorrow, next week, or 2 years from now.

Here are some questions to help you.

1. What time will you wake up tomorrow?
2. What time will you go to bed Friday night?
3. How will you get to school/work next week?
4. Where will you go on vacation next summer?
5. What will you eat or drink on vacation?
6. What won't you do tomorrow?

These questions are a guide, not a limit. Use any examples from your life.*

Talk about the people or things in your life.

Use the future tense to describe your family, friends, or coworkers. Write sentences to talk about the future actions of other people.

"My friend is going to move to Amsterdam next year."

"I heard that they are making a new Matrix movie."

You can print this PDF and write your answers on the pages below, or use your own notebook or computer, tablet, phone.

Have fun with this part of your lesson, it's all about you!

Future Tense worksheet

1. What time will you wake up on Saturday? /go to bed on Friday? (Change the SUBJECT - children, husband/wife)
2. How are you going to school next week?/ work tomorrow? (Change the SUBJECT - classmate, coworker, children, husband/wife)
3. What sports will you play next year? watch this weekend? (Change the SUBJECT - classmate, brother, sister, children, friend[s])

Future Tense worksheet

4. What are you going to have for lunch tomorrow? (Change the SUBJECT - classmate, coworker, children, husband/wife)

5. What are you not going to do next month? (Change the SUBJECT - use your imagination 🤔)

Write more examples.