

Reading Challenge!

How is “READ” pronounced in the story?

Maya's Favorite Place

WorldEnglishBlog.com

The little bookstore on the corner is Maya's favorite place. Every Saturday, she walks there and reads the new children's books. She likes to read picture books with bright colors and funny stories.

Sometimes, she reads books about brave kids and exciting adventures. Maya reads quietly to herself, moving her lips a little as she follows the words on the page. She loves the way reading makes her feel.

Last week, Maya read a book about a cat who travels to the moon. She read it in just one hour because it was so interesting! She has read many books before, but this one is special.

Maya's mom read to her every night when she was little. That's how Maya learned to love reading.

Now, Maya reads to her little brother. She hopes he will love reading as much as she does.

Maya has read almost every book in the children's section. Her favorite book is about a girl who learns to fly. She has read it three times!

Maya wants to be a writer when she grows up. She wants to write stories that other kids will love to read. She knows that reading is important. It helps her learn new things and makes her imagination strong.

More helpful information about the VERB To READ:

Past tense of READ and Past Participle of
READ (Audio, Quiz, and PDF) LINK

 Past tense of READ and Past Participle of READ -  (Easy English grammar )
LINK

Pronunciation Quiz ✓ Past and Past
Participle of READ  LINK

WorldEnglishBlog.com